

OFFSITES & OVERNIGHTS

The best meetings don't feel like meetings. They feel like a change of scene, a good table, and a team that leaves with a clear sense of direction.

At The General Tarleton, we host work days that are warm, easy and genuinely enjoyable, whether it's a planning session, a team reset, or a get-together with clients.

Our private spaces are calm, comfortable and easy to settle into, with everything you need already taken care of. We're easy to reach, have plenty of parking and the space is yours for the day.

And if an overnight stay makes sense, our bedrooms give everyone a chance to properly switch off and reset.

We start by listening, then build the day around what you need: from a simple, well-run meeting to something a little more generous, with great food, drinks and time to reconnect.

WHY THE GENERAL TARLETON?

PROFESSIONAL WITH CHARACTER

This is not a blank-canvas conference hotel. Our space is full of personality, from roaring fires in winter to sun-filled terraces in summer, ideal for bringing people together in a way that feels natural and human. Our well appointed meeting space in the Upper Barn reflects all of these qualities

FOOD WORTH TRAVELLING FOR

Corporate away days and strategy meetings deserve food that actually delivers. From breakfast butties to power the morning, to relaxed two-course lunches and long, leisurely dinners, we make sure food is something to look forward to.

EASY TO REACH, HARD TO FORGET

Minutes from the A1(M), just outside Knaresborough and within easy reach of Harrogate, Leeds and York, we're perfectly placed for regional teams or destination gatherings without the stress of complicated travel (with a large car park).
